

Literacy...Success Criteria

Is your child able to:

- Ask and respond to various questions correctly and sensibly?
- Respond to Welsh tales (e.g. The Tale of Winefride)?
- Write a description of a location?
- Present information about geographical topics orally and in writing?
- Write a personal letter/email to someone from a contrasting country?
- Read and respond to various texts independently – using good comprehension skills and the PEE method?(Point, Example, Explanation)?
- Write a detailed explanation?
- Present a persuasive speech?
- Respond to class novels by referring to the various techniques used by the author?
- Plan and write a newspaper report?

Numeracy...Success Criteria

Is your child able to:

- Recognise and order numbers up to 1,000,000?
- Identify number properties and continue various number patterns?
- Use addition and subtraction strategies efficiently by both pencil and paper method and mentally?
- Multiply and divide decimal numbers?
- Solve mathematical problems and puzzles involving money, time and distance?
- Calculate fractions, decimals and percentages – linking these with ratio and proportion?
- Measure and calculate perimeter and area correctly?
- Organise and interpret data in bar charts, line graphs, spreadsheets and databases?

Yr. 5 and 6 Autumn Term 2017: Glas, Glas Blaned

Cross-curricular links:

Is your child able to:

- Identify and compare the differences of living in Wales and Gambia?
- Identify the musical elements (pitch, tempo, dynamics, silence, texture, rhythm a continuity) and name orchestral instruments and use them to compose a musical story?
- Use digital, scripting, art and animation skills to create a short film on the Tale of St Winefride?
- Identify, describe and classify various birds.

Educational Visit:

- RSPB Conwy

Book List:

Sky Hawk – Gill Lewis

Iron Man – Ted Hughes

Mirrors – Wendy Cooling (Editor)

Key Words:

Recycle, migration, protect, climate change, time zones, Gambia, Osprey, friendship, citizenship, Christianity, worship.