Literacy

Success Criteria:

Is your child able to...?

- Respond to the book 'James a'r Eirinen Wlanog' (James and the Giant Peach), using prediction and reviewing skills?
- Read and discuss books, taking note of the book's cover, title and author, discussing favourite parts of the text and/or extracts that didn't appeal?
- Use factual language for the purpose of persuading, expressing opinions and presenting information?
- Write a portrait, instructions and a news paper report beginning to organise their written work into paragraphs (by Year 4) when writing more extensively?
- Respond orally and in writing to Read Write Inc books and others?
- Write in neat and joined handwriting?

Numeracy

Success Criteria:

Is your child able to...?

- Recall the 2,3,5,and 10 (Yr 3) and 4, 6 and beyond (Yr 4) times tables quickly and correctly?
- Read and write numbers to at least 1,000 (Yr 3) and 10,000 (Yr 4)?
- Recall and use number bonds 0-10; 10-20; 20-100 (Yr 3) and to at least 1,000 by Yr 4?
- Add and subtract 1, 10, 100 or 1000 to/from any whole numbers (Yr 3);
- Add two digit numbers to, or subtract two digit numbers from, 3 digit numbers using mental or paper and pencil methods?
- Double and halve 2 (Yr 3) and 3 (Yr 4) digit numbers?
- Use money to pay for items up to £2 (Yr 3) and £10 (Yr4) and calculate change?
- Solve problems and reason how they have reached a solution?

Year 3 and 4 AUTUMN TERM 2016 THEME:- Healthy Living

Cross Curricular links: Focus: Healthy Living

Success Criteria:
Is your child able to...?

- Identify the main ways of living healthily, including eating a healthy and balanced diet, doing regular exercise and speaking honestly about their feelings?
- Apply scientific skills (e.g. prediction, reasoning, data handling) to familiar contexts?
- Design, create and evaluate their healthy sandwich?
- Recognise religious leaders and leaders within their community?
- Evaluate Vivaldi'rs 'Four Seasons'; Perform and compose simple rhythm recognising some of the basic musical elements?
- Educational Visit: Techniquest (more details to follow)

